George II mahogany wing back armchair - ref 1855

A good English George II mahogany & beech framed wing back armchair of excellent shape & proportions. The back with arched top flanked by out swept side wings, scrolling downwards to form armrests which terminate in an elegant rolled arm. The seat section with loose upholstered cushion, supported on carved mahogany cabriole front legs with ball and claw feet swept rear legs terminating in a pad shaped foot. A chair of a particularly good shape, and form, being generous enough in proportions for comfort without looking large. The chair is covered in a wonderful handmade fabric woven on a traditional 18th century loom.

Provenance: From a private residence in Devon.
