George I carved giltwood pier mirror - ref 1992

A fine English George I carved giltwood pier mirror of excellent tall proportions. The crest with an ornate out scrolling arrangement of leaves and flowers over a shaped border top section, with vine carved scrolls with a smaller mirror plate over a larger rectangular plate with a demi-lune shaped moulding around the circumference, interspersed with further vine carving and the bottom corners formed into an enclosing bracket of floral carving.

The gilding is delightfully aged with wear showing through in places giving this pier mirror an important presence in a hall, library or living room.
