

Sheraton period mahogany urn stand - ref 2028

A fine George III Sheraton period mahogany urn stand, retaining excellent original colour & patina. The square top with tulipwood cross banded and boxwood strung periphery and a low gallery around the edge. The serpentine shaped flame mahogany frieze with a pull out mixing bowl slide, each side with a satinwood oval paterae at either end. The top of each leg has a tapering acanthus carved section over tapering, flute moulded square section legs with block toes and brass capped castors. A superbly elegant little table.
