

GEORGE II GREEN JAPANED LONGCASE CLOCK BY NATHANIELL GRAY, LONDON - REF 2057

A fine and rare George II green Japanned 8 day hour striking, longcase clock by Nathaniell Gray, London. The case decorated with probably the rarest colour used on this period - green. The hood with broken arch door with curved sounding fretwork above with two urn finials. Below a broken arch Chinoiserie panel door depicting a Chinese scene bordered by a decorated surround, with a further Chinoiserie panel to the base below and decorated plinth.

The clock has a fine quality five pillar movement. The 12" dial with silvered chapter ring, inscribed Nathaniell Gray, London to the 6 o'clock position, matted brass centre with subsidiary second hand with silvered surround, twin winding holes, lower date aperture. The arch with a Strike/Silent selector, bordered by dolphin corner pieces, the dial quartered by urn spandrels.

A fine highly decorative and elegant clock.
