GEORGE III REGENCY PERIOD ROSEWOOD SOFA TABLE - REF 2398

A superb, rare George III Regency rosewood sofa table, the well figured top with a border of boxwood stringing, the frieze with panels of boxwood stringing and fitted with two drawers and two dummy drawers on the reverse retaining their original leopard mask handles, the table raised on end supports with turned spindle balusters supported by ivory balls, at each corner, larger ivory balls and with splayed legs ending in brass castors. The table retains excellent original colour and patina throughout.

This table (or a very similar table from the same workshop) is photographed in the library of Townley Hall, Co. Louth. See Country Life, 30th June 1948. Country Life image and further images on millingtonadams.com.
