GEOFFREY KEY - "THE SINGER" - REF 2492

An exciting abstract, figurative composition by one of Manchester's most well known living artists - Geoffrey Key.

Geoffrey Key was born in Manchester in 1941. Attending Manchester's High School of Art, he progressed in 1958 to degree and post graduate studies at the Manchester Regional College of Art. Successful studies lead to a post graduate scholarship in sculpture, and the award of the Heywood medal in Fine Art and the Guthrie Travelling Scholarship. Now in his sixth decade as an artist, Geoffrey Key is now an artist of international repute, he has mounted major exhibitions in France, Hong Kong, the USA and Australia and is represented in important public and corporate collections, including the Salford and Manchester Art Galleries, National Art Library, the Victoria and Albert Museum, the Mandarin Oriental Hong Kong, Jockey Club Hong Kong, Societe Roquefort, Chateau de St Ouen, and Perrier.
