A PAIR OF GEORGE III CARVED CARVED GILTWOOD WALL BRACKETS - REF 2497

A superb pair of George III Chippendale period carved giltwood wall brackets. The top of scalloped demi-lune form, with a carved edge supported by carved floral C-scrolls, with a central ho-ho bird, with emanating flowers, leaves and further scrolls. Lovely brackets of a good size and fabulous quality retaining the majority of their original gilding. These brackets have a particularly elegant, flowing and well executed design, with lovely detailed carving throughout.

The form of these brackets closely follows designs illustrated in Thomas Chippendale's - "The Gentleman and Cabinet Maker's Director."
